          enslaved
          then 1 and 5
<Lxndr>
<JP> Enslaved, Hounded, and Gained a Hunter Mentor

```
<JP> Its a tough world it seems <JP>
<Lxndr>
         at least for our characters we clearly met as slaves
<Lxndr>
<JP> Neither of us has rolled a 5 on the random experience table
<JP> Which is a Windfall :P <JP> Also, there is no windfall chart yet, I'm drawing a blank on that we met as slaves, and then you left to pursue some sort of myth, while I just got hounded <JP> I need six options
<Lxndr> not sure what that means <Lxndr>
         but then when you got back, you were scorned, and I found this dude who mentors me, that's also a hunter <JP> :)
<Lxndr>
         I'd have invited you to train with me, but I was too bus scorning vou <Lxndr> sorry <JP> lol
<JP> I'm amazed at how easy the Hard Times table was and how hard the Windfall one is being :P
<JP> I have one entry now: A True Friend of Merit well, it's easier to come up with Bads
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr> than Goods Briefcase full of Money
<Lxndr>
         Magical Item/Artifact?
<Lxndr>
<JP> Well I shortened entry one to "Friendship"
<JP> Then perhaps "A Few Coins" <Lxndr> Didn't Die
<JP> lol
<JP> Didn't roll a 6
<JP> :)
<JP> magic item is "Rare Find" which is more open to player interpretation
         I'd split that similarly to the failed pursuits
<Lxndr>
         Legedary Find, Mythical Find
<Lxndr>
<JP> added: Renown, and A Title
<JP> Sure, that makes sense <Lxndr>
         Love
<Lxndr>
         because finding love is damned important <JP> I have a list now
<JP> Fellowship, Purse of Coins, Renown, Legendary Find, A Title, Love <JP> Purse of coins doesn't seem to fit anymore so wait, I know I'm a former slave, then hounded? (did I escape?)
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         then found a hunter as a mentor
<JP> So I'm thinking Limited Wealth
<Lxndr> but... what land did I come from? what is my race?
<JP> We didn't do that <JP> I only rolled what I'm working on <JP> :)
<Lxndr>
         ah
<JP> Roll 2d6 and take the least three times for Born, Grew, and Named <JP> Then we can answer that

<Lxndr>
         ah, right <JP> Your adventurer is, Seges: Tall thin humans that live long, Vetu-kin, the brains.
<JP> Mine is, Macto: Short stocky humans that live short, Arks-kin, the brawn.
<JP> We are both humans <JP> No wonder we got enslaved :(
         I'm... an elf-type <Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         tall thin longevity, with brains
```

```
<JP> Right, part elf
<JP> and I'm part dwarf <JP> Heritage here gives you a summary of the six above ground races, http://wiki.wishray.com/doku.php?id=audeo:binding of laurus and I'm also a hunter
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         so...
         I'm a stereotypical elf
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr> wood elf, at least <JP> Well I suppose now I know why my guy grew up in the upper underground, lusting for the gold mines!
<JP> :)
<Lxndr>
         no wait, I'm a Valley Elf
<Lxndr>

<JP> Well don't take too much stock in the valley part of Crowned Valley, it comprises the living part of the entire world that is Laurus <JP> :)
<Lxndr>
         well, I did grow up in the Wild so Wild Elf? :D
<Lxndr>
     Born in the wild, grew up in the city <JP> Likely enslaved by the Guardians of the Crown, they are the big slavers of the modern age of Laurus
<Lxndr>
         sure, stolen from my home <JP> That is the large and stifling organization that protects the valley from the devils outside <Lxndr>
         then I escaped slavery, and was hounded by slave hunters then finally found a hunter to mentor me
<Lxndr>
<JP> Sounds likely <JP> Its been a tough life, but it takes a tough man to make a tender chicken. I mean, adventurer with gusto!
<JP> Well you already have two merits for your adventurer: Cunning from being born in the wild, and Educated from growing up in the city, nice.
<JP> Merits are nice

<JP> Holy crap, I'm filling in the Minor Misfortune table and I've done four. They are all the exact same number of characters...
<JP> What are the odds!
<JP> Ah! Another one!
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         the odds of that last one being the exact same is actually rather high after you noticed the first four because human brains are weird once they notice patterns
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         so why 'audeo'? is it because of your speakers?
<Lxndr>
         oh shit, I have a fault?
         cunning and educated and cautious
<Lxndr>
<JP> Audeo, latin for "dare" or "I date"
<JP> *I dare
```

```
<JP> whoops <Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         the root of audacious, then <JP> right, seems likely <JP> Pronounced "ow-deh-0" from what I can garner online, which is pleasing to say and easy to remember, IMO <Lxndr>
         yep.
<Lxndr>
         From Latin audacia ("boldness"), from audax ("bold"), from audeo
("I am bold, I dare")
<Lxndr>
          rather different from audio. it's interesting that that one very similar vowel sound is all it takes to go from "I dare" to "I hear" <JP> hehe, right
<Lxndr>
         I dare and I obey, one syllable different linguistics is interesting
<Lxndr>
»» JP nods
<JP> ouch, the major misfortune table is a B I T C H
<Lxndr>
<JP> Disfigured, Hated, Cursed, Enfeebled, Delusional, and Crippled <Lxndr>
         oh hey, though <Lxndr>
         because I was named in the city, I get a Windfall <JP> right <JP> The only way to get to Major Misfortune at the moment is to have been Named in the Deadlands <JP> Which gives you a roll on that and the Merit: Champion :)

<Lxndr>
          I'm connected to the Guardians of the Crown?
<Lxndr>
<JP> somehow <Lxndr>
         through my Hunter mentor <Lxndr> or no <Lxndr>
         this came from my made-a-name
<Lxndr>
          so before I was enslaved, I made fast friends with someone in the Guardians
<Lxndr> or while <Lxndr>
          I spent my childhood in the Wild, my adolescence in the City, and made my name in the City too.
         And AFTER I was Enslaved?
<Lxndr>
<JP> Yep, you urbanized born/grew/named make sense to me as a process
<Lxndr>
          so the second processes are after that?
<Lxndr>
<JP> Well remember the note, the slavery is a legal for convicted criminals
<Lxndr>
         here's how I'm imagining it:
<JP> Lx, yes
<Lxndr>
         I spent my childhood in the Wild, then was sold into slavery by my poor family, who needed monies
<Lxndr> brought to the City where I grew up, likely as a slave of the Guardians
<Lxndr>
<JP> I thought some Mighty Guild enslaved you?
         well, they did later
<Lxndr>
<JP>
      oh right, ok, we aren't there yet
<Lxndr>
         the Guardians bought me first, so I could impress them
<Lxndr>
          (in Naming)
<JP> You were already an accomplished slave
<JP> :)
         so somewhere around there, despite having a fellowship with the <Lxndr>
Guardians, I wound up in a slave auction, or wound up being just stolen
         I was probably very close to earning my freedom before the <Lxndr> Mighties stole me they are in the unfortunate habit of taking already-trained-and-<Lxndr>
well-regarded slaves
<Lxndr>
         because they then don't have to waste the investment »» JP nods
<Lxndr>
          so, fyi, you were probably also enslaved similarly <Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
          since you betrayed me <Lxndr>
         and all <JP> Someone was getting to big for their britches was all so, as a mercenary guild, they took me out of the city
<Lxndr>
<JP> With that smart air of smart superiority (to a battlefield, and also away from people who might recognize <Lxndr> me) <JP> I took care of that hey, I EARNED my fucking freedom, then they took me away
<Lxndr>
<JP>
      Right, suck-up too, I forgot
```

```
<JP> :D <Lxndr>
          I didn't suck up to the fucking Mighties
<Lxndr>
          but I served the Guardians well, because they served me well <JP> Oh no, I'm saying I betrayed you with the Guardians and had you sold off to the Mighties, if you can see that <Lxndr>
         ohh, I can see that <JP> That was the betrayal <Lxndr>
         ves <Lxndr> excellent <Lxndr>
          you're the reason I don't trust dwarves <JP> hehe
          and why I call Mactos 'dwarves', because that's a racial slur
<Lxndr>
      Remember we are both human, just elf-like and dwarf-like
<JP>
<JP> :)
<Lxndr>
         but Arks are dwarves too <Lxndr>
          hmm
<JP> Vetu and Arks are Elves and Dwarves actually either way, fuck Arks and Macto
<Lxndr>
          because of you <JP> lol
<JP> Well I don't know if the game mechanics are going to work but it looks like the chargen will be fun with the right mindset <JP> :)
<Lxndr>
          either way, after enough time I finally escaped from the Mighties
<Lxndr>
          and did a Frank Abnegale for a while, avoiding them
<Lxndr> (Mastermind)
<Lxndr>
          though maybe that's more Intrigue than Mastermind
<Lxndr>
<JP> Mastermind as I see it when I wrote it down, is Nate Ford.
          either way, somehow I used my masterminding to keep away from the <Lxndr> Mighties
<Lxndr> ahh <Lxndr> that works
»» Paganini is now known as Mastermind <JP> hehe
<Lxndr>
         anyway, my shell games kept the Mighties from finding me <Lxndr>
          until I finally made it 'home'
<Lxndr>
         my Hunter Mentor was family

<JP> Which is the step after all this where you see if your character has enough definition or buy some with starting "Gold" <JP> yay, all tables done so in audeo, you have to audit
<Lxndr>
<JP> hehe
<JP> I just added in you can waive the audit though, since it will in a way balance out in play even if your adventurer turns out pretty bad. I think, dunno honestly, time will tell.
         well I'm a former slave, fugitive, and hunter
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         I'm good <JP> hehe
<Lxndr>
         btw, 'hoard'
<Lxndr> not 'horde of treasure' unless it's, like, a gang of treasure
<Lxndr>
         also: where does it say 'roll 2 dice and take the lower'? we did <Lxndr>
that for the first processes, but not the second.
         ah, nevermind
<Lxndr>
<JP> It is for the first part of the process
<JP> whoops, re: horde
<JP> :)
<Lxndr> hm
         the implications of Random Creation is that I should have also <Lxndr> done it for the Mentor/Hard Times/etc. too did we do that?
<Lxndr>
<JP> I figure its all fast and free, since well, its not like you could just another option at the moment <JP> :)
<Lxndr> oh sure but it seems kind of sad to do that for, say, the Windfall table
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr> makes Love even more rare :(
         like "nope, only way you'll get Love is boxcars."

     The two dice least is only for the first tables
<JP>
     It should say that somewhere, but it does not <Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
          sorry for the nitpikiness, but... I hope it helps <Lxndr>
         what's a lp?
```

```
<JP> Innate potential
<JP>
     Its one of the two types of chips that let you fill up abilities
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr>
         let's see <JP> So you have 3 potential hurry, but it counts as 0 unless you put 3 Ip on it <Lxndr>
         I have +1 Hurry, +1 Trick, +1 ip
<Lxndr>
         +1 Hurry again
<Lxndr>
         +2 IP, +1 to a random/chosen ability <Lxndr> +! to a random/chosen ability <Lxndr>
         so I only have +2 hurry

<JP> All abilities start at 2 ah, okay, so I can get up to 4 <Lxndr>
         for Hurry
<Lxndr> <JP> right
<Lxndr>
         plus two for random/chosen abilities <JP> There is a table for that <Lxndr>
         #roll 2[1d6]
-Notice-
           -RPGServ/#indierpgs- <Roll for Lxndr [2[1d6]]: 3 2 >
<Lxndr> hurry and drive
<Lxndr>
         so... I'm going to be a nascar driver lots of hurry, some drive
<Lxndr>
<JP> hehe
<JP> hurry is the goto combat roll but I have 3 ips
<Lxndr>
<JP> You start with 5 Ips
<JP> So you have 8 chips to assign to your abilities at any one time.
<Lxndr> hm
         so I have 2 Push, 3 Drive, 5 Hurry, 2 Sharp, 3 Trick, and 8 IPs
<Lxndr>
         I undestand 'freeform creation' as a concept
<Lxndr>
<Lxndr> what's unfolding creation?
<JP> Its random rolls and choices based on those rolls, and returning to random rolls

<JP> Well I'm in total burnout for design and quite ready to run Audeo, damn
<JP>
     So much for some testing today
<JP> At least I will likely finish that all up tomorrow during the day <JP> So it will be ready to go at a moments notice for testing later okay, so... you're going to run Audeo?

```

<Lxndr> cool
