Phases

- Background: Guttersnipe Max was an ungovernable child pretty well from the start. Her parents were not much able to give her a lot of attention, but were not outright abusive. Just ground down and wasted.
- Schooling (1): Our Lady of Forbearance Fatima Regular School further hellion behaviour did not endear Max to the nuns or much of anyone else.
- Schooling (2): Eventually Max's petty theft and pranking got her in actual trouble and she attended the Lockheed-Bimota Correctional Academy for Girls, which was really a juvenile prison. Intense discipline tended only to harden her resolve. However, her math aptitude did attract attention, both from a sympathetic teacher, and a mob-connected kid who hooked her up. The mob's family-like structure met a deep need in Max and she signed up without thinking too hard about it.
- Dropout: Max is now a mob "runner", doing various jobs like running numbers games without a console or writing, which helps a lot of she is caught.
