

The Inquisition

Known officially as the Grand Order of the Knights of the Inquisition of the Church of The Holy Square, this order of knights has chapterhouses all over Voprur and in other kingdoms where the people follow the religion of the Temple of the Four Faced God, who sanction this order. Generally their goals are to root out demon-worshippers and others who violate the dictates of the temple. To help achieve these goals, the knights of the order generally take a number of oaths to help them focus on their tasks, including vows of chastity.
