Rules for Hiring Retainers

The table below gives the rules for hiring various classes of NPCs.

Type	Availability	Level/Class	Pay and Shares	Experience	Loyalty	Primarily Run By*	Notes
Full Non-Player Character	GM Choice (sometimes per scenario)	Yes	Negotiated individually, but likely to include shares	Full Share	Completely independent	GM	Details on NPCs will vary considerably
Henchman	Rare	Yes	None, other than support	Half Share	Very loyal, as a general rule	Player	Players cannot obtain Henchmen that are higher level
Man-at-Arms Hireling	Common	No	1 GP per day, or will accept (often fractional) shares	Half Share	By morale	Player	These brave 0 Level hirelings will fight
Other Hireling	Very Common	No	5 SP per day, or will accept (often fractional) shares	Half Share	By morale, but low if forced to fight	Player	Torch Bearers, Porters, etc, willing to go into dungeons

Mercenaries	Common	No	Varies	None	Varies	Player	These hired warriors do not adventure, but are primarily hired in units to guard places
Specialists	Varies	No	Varies	None	Usually unimportant	GM	see the book for the various sorts of Specialists that are available

*The GM will take control of any NPC that they feel the need to play (such as ones that fail a morale check), even ones primarily controlled by the player.

Hiring retainers will usually come down to a reaction roll. This roll can be modified by +/-1 if the offer is exceptionally generous or stingy.
