Note: Passers

When a NPC is listed as a “PSH” (Pure Strain Human, one with no mutations) this denotes that this is how they present themselves. Some mutant humans, to enjoy the privileged status that PSH individuals have in many communities may, if they have no outwardly appearing mutations, hide the fact that they have mutations, and pass as a PSH. Thus a character listed as a PSH may actually be a mutant human passing (“Passers” in the parlance of The Lands) as a PSH, or simply appear as a PSH on first contact.

The Show

The UN's traveling with The Show.

Guards

The Show employs guards to keep everybody safe, as few of the merchant PCs or crew are particularly good at fighting.

Elkor

Elkor was originally a member of a community from the western reaches, but they were wiped out with few survivors who were scattered to the wind. She now uses her pyrokinetic powers and fighting skills to work as a guard for hire, and she's been with the traders for much of the current journey. She mostly keeps to herself, but has proven quite bold on the couple of occasions that the group has been threatened, clearly acting with a bit of fatality.

Forp

Forp is a burly gatoroid that the group picked up much more recently, hailing from one of the many villages of his kind in the southern coastal swamps. Unlike Elkor, he's quite talkative when engaged. It's hard to say if it's a mutation, or if it's just part of the variation of his kind, but he's far tougher and stronger than his kind seem to usually be (and they tend to be pretty tough and strong). At least according to the mutant human who put you in contact with him. He currently wields a big piece of metal he found on the road (before that he used a wooden club), and he's been asking to be equipped with something better.

Forp is simply adventurous, and wants to see the world a bit and make his fortune before returning home to his swamp village to find a mate.

Crew

Most of the crew are nameless currently.

Lyrel

A young passenger woman from Alalit, daughter of Taven and Mazirin, who seems to be fascinated with Digger. She has joined The Show with her mother's grudging approval as part of her Rite of Maturity.

Lailana

Formerly a perennial challenger for the chief position in Bay Village on Horse Bay, Lailana was convinced that her talents would be of more use as a member of the crew of The Show.

Lanu

Mutant mouse-oid, likely an archivist, who followed the PCs into the aquatic base. Lanu has been convinced to travel with The Show to Grubport by Hoff. Apparently Ferid (below) is looking for Lanu for some reason.

Shorty

Shorty is a bot from the aquatic laboratory near Bay Village on Horse Bay (part of the overall complex formerly run by the Pylon God CAM that spans the bay).

Passengers

Meass

The leader of the male hisser who managed to break away from their queen. Pictured as he was first discovered, relaxing on the floor of Mazirin's basement.

Coorsis

Male servant of Loosis, Coorsis had been tasked with helping the PCs find the males, but broke free of Loosis' control. Coorsis is a mutation from the base hisser stock, with colorful crests on his head and arms.

Zeebell

Possibly more accurately referred to as cargo than a passenger, Zeebell is a currently deactivated warrior android first encountered at the aquatic lab base near Bay Village on Horse Bay.

Grubport

Townfolk

The head of the Urag family, the rulers of Grubport. While putatively run by a council of elders of the most important families of Grubport (who make their homes upon the deck of the old ruined aircraft carrier that comprises Grubport), this family is deferred to by all of the others. According to sources, Urag is garnering weapons to create some sort of personal army.

Young Urag

Young Urag is the son of the elder. He is clearly fond of his vices, and not a skilled gambler, having lost considerable trade chits at the gaming tables at The Famous Root and elsewhere.

Urag's Daughter

Daughter of the elder Urag, this one is cold, vapid, and grasping. Not particularly bright, her only thoughts are of her own security and comfort. She previously sought to marry Khovip to obtain the wealth of his mine.

Khovip

Grubport native from a formerly important family. Has inherited an "ancient mine" from his father, which makes him suddenly wealthy and important. Khovip is singularly well travelled amongst the folk of the Peninsula, having been to the Citadel of Thought, and the Kreal home cave, amongst many places. The Grubport locals seem to think his sojourns in the Central Lands have made him effete, despite clearly actually being a pretty tough customer in some ways.

A Light Keeper

One of the priesthood of Dwein in Grubport. This one came into The Famous Root and gave a doomsaying type proclamation about the fact that Raymont's power was dwindling.

Belron

Leader of a group of Grubporters who perform religious skits at festivals and other various events. Asked if his group could play on the stage of The Show, and was manipulated by Squidly into arguing with Herald N'kan about matters of belief. Clearly a devout Dweinite.

Alitec

Rumored to be from Amry Crossing, Alitec is suspected of being an somewhat of an agent provocateur, or at least a criminal sent in by one of the border lords to sow chaos. Alitec is known to run games of chance, including "table-races" of small mutant animals at The Famous Root, and knows how to get in touch with Doc Potamus. Urag suspects Alitec of being involved in much more nefarious stuff than just gambling, and wants his ilk out of Grubport.

Visitors

Head of the Olkan family from the village of Stonefield. A former captain of the Peninsula Guard, Olkan is fairly set in his ways. He's very interested in marrying off his children, and is particularly uncaring of his daughter's

Young Olkan

Son of Olkan, and likely next to rule it. Seems simultaneously prejudiced and provincial, and yet open-minded enough to think that maybe Kaiser Urs isn't the worst thing that could happen to the Peninsula; and also not all that interested in taking a mate.

Caag AKA Breck

Going by the name of Breck, rumor has it that this mutant's real name is Breck, and he's been motivated by somebody to slay Herald N'kan.

Pavon

A "painted woman" mutant human encountered in Grubport.

Peninsula at Large

The people below do not seem to be attached to one place.

Restorationist Emmissaries

Clearly seeking to gain influence in the Peninsula, this team comes to the coastal settlements regularly from the Restorationist enclaves to the East across the waters.

Marbolla

The captain of the patrol ship that carries the emissary team, and as such, the chief emissary. Marbolla seems fairly reasonable with the exception of a clear disdain for mutants.

The Patrol

Composed apparently of a handful of squadrons of mounted armored pure strain humans, the unit that the PCs has met is lead by one Lieutenant Sone. They claim to protect the entirety of the Peninsula (which does not include Alalit), apparently with the seat of their government being in the center of the Peninsula, a place called Meadow Folk.

Lieutenant Sone

Here Sone is seen in his armor, but sans helmet as he was at Mazirin's saloon.

Ilirha

A careerer of renown across the Peninsula, Ilirha is said to terrorize villages from her flying temple. She was responsible for disrupting the ceremonies to determine a new chief at Bay Village, by taking the two lead competitors (leaving Lailana as the only remaining competitor, and a thorn in Kurzor's side).

Doc Potamus

Renowned across the Peninsula for his ability to bestow cybernetic and genetic enhancements upon those who seek him out. Lyrel has confirmed that it was Potamus who bestowed her mother with cybernetics.

Archivists

Ferid is a skunk-oid that flies a Dragonthopter, and is looking for Lanu.

Random Wanderers

Mercurial Rhinoid, known as being a slaver, and likely a member of the Zoogremacists (or at least a sympathizer).
