

History

An event in Reign of the Lizards

The Moon taunts Kajaga for an age from the high sky, until the drake can take it no more, and soars up to do battle. The moon has laid a trap, however, and leads Kajaga on a chase through the heavens. Kajaga gets stuck in a net of stars. Meanwhile the Moon flies through it's belly making a hole from which Vijo and Oshin escape.
