

Locales

In Town

Sections of Town

- Angel Head Heights is controlled by the Centaur Row Gang, a bloodthirsty pack of scoundrels and ne'er-do-wells.
- Song Bank is the place where gangs of youths gather to taunt each other or show off their bravery.

Noteworthy Streets

- Viper Row is a place full of beggars and thieves.
- guisarme Stand is controlled by the Stinky MawJabber, a bloodthirsty pack of scoundrels and ne'er-do-wells.

Open Areas

- Wolverine Garden is primarily a military drill and parade ground.
- Drake Stray is a popular picnic-ground.

Buildings of Note

- Lion Chateau is being rebuilt after a devastating fire.
- Cartbourne Brewery is being rebuilt after a devastating fire.

Outer Defenses

- Grey Barracks has the smallest gateway into the city, barely large enough for a horse and rider.
- Springtowndon Ramparts has a gate that is barred and locked from dawn until dusk.

Shipping Facilities

- Nottingfair Crane is near Sad Pullet Inn & General Store, famous as the home of Centipede Waster Brew!.
- Diamond Pier has the best views in town.

Near Water

- Wealth Well is the best place to watch the sunset in summer.
- White Bridge is where families go to feed the ducks and swans.

Religious Buildings

- Shadow Deanery is dominated by an enormous white marble statue of Trismanuel Oditor the Candidate, a standard-bearer in the 64th Cavalry Division. He is depicted in a well-known statue about the time he clandestinely attacked a patrol of Northlanders to shield his town from their constant raids.
- Eagle Priory is primarily a military drill and parade ground.

Places of the Dead

- Ghoul Catacomb is contested territory between Sodality of the Imperial Meditation and the Flounder Place Gang.
- Chosen One Mausoleum is haunted by the restless dead - even the brave do not venture there after dark.

Taverns & Inns

- Gorden's Festhaus, famous for its Slow-Roasted Pigeon
- The Quiver and Fly, famous for its Pastry-wrapped Game Hen
- Free House of the Chain and Brazier, famous for its Battered Fried Rabbit
- The Two Leopards, famous for its Turkey
- Panerra's Bar & Grill, famous for its Slow-Roasted Elk
- The Anvil and Flag, famous for its Glazed Quail

Other Points of Interest

- Hydra Harbor is near the rowdy bars that only sailors frequent.
- Skipfieldwick Span is a popular fishing spot.
- Devastation Forum is contested territory between the Bunhurst Way Gang and Association of the Stolen Snake.
- Reaping Butcher is being rebuilt after a devastating fire.
- Manticore Mill is now home only to rats and squatters.
- Umber Marketplace is a popular meeting place for the young, stylish, and wealthy.
- Silver Graveyard is famous for containing the remains of Saint Idus.

Outside of Town

Farms

- A manor house where they raise chickens. In addition to a mottle-and-daub farmhouse with thatched roof, there is a stable, a mill, a mill and a well-manicured ornamental garden.
- A farmstead where they raise goats and ducks. In addition to a small stone farmhouse, there is a chapel for worshipping mainly Chauntea and Pelor, a smokehouse, and a livestock enclosure.
- A farmstead where they grow barley and raise beef cows. In addition to a large manor house surrounded by a moat, there is a granary.
- A farmstead where they grow wheat and oats. In addition to a collection of peasant houses, there is a woodshed, a well-manicured ornamental garden, a tool shed and a druidic stone circle.

Other Points of Interest

- Sorcerous Canal
- Old Woolcasteriam Steppe
- Ankheg Quarry
- Worleigh Ridge
- The Point of Forgotten Dreams
- Chilwoldstan Moors
- Sin Headland
- Hippogriff Marsh

Culture

This town was created because a metal mine is located nearby (trade). The town was built around a Church.

Local Customs

- “The Ancients teach us at the onset of puberty of a young man everyone in the village should jump over a fire.”
- “It is expected when an father is bested in single combat for a villager to participate in a wrestling match with a blindfolded woman.”
- “You are obliged at any Equinox or Solstice to dance naked around a fire and for a priest to perform a particular dance on behalf of those present.”

Recent News

- “Jaycarr Tirvere, a brown-haired scholar, has decided to leave town forever.”
- “The Fortunetellers Brotherhood are throwing a gala to celebrate 100 years since its founding.”
- “Sennacherib, the guild master of the Fellowship of Goldsmiths, has decided to leave town forever.”
- “Services will be held for the late Hamall Øgmundsin, a tearful king, at Harpy Parish.”
- “There will be a ceremony at Portwickhall Park marking the dedication of a new illuminated book commemorating Bedenard of Cartburn, a marshal in the 391st Archers Battalion. He secured his place in history when he bravely defended against a tribe of remorseless sahaugins and was easily recognizable because he rode a griffon into combat..”

From:

<https://wiki.wishray.com/> - Wishray Wiki

Permanent link:

https://wiki.wishray.com/doku.php?id=random_heroes:benstock_woods

Last update: 2018/05/24 23:25

